The image features a white background with a repeating pattern of fine, vertical, wavy lines. Overlaid on this background are several large, solid black geometric shapes. These include thick, curved bands that sweep across the upper portion of the frame, and several solid black circles of varying sizes. One large circle is positioned in the center, while three smaller circles are arranged horizontally below it. Other circles and curved bands are partially visible at the edges of the frame.

The image features a repeating pattern of thick, dark green lines on a light beige, textured background. The lines form a series of interconnected, flowing shapes that resemble stylized vines or scrolls. Each shape typically starts with a small spiral at its end and then curves into a larger, open loop. The overall effect is a rhythmic, organic design.
